

VIC Trade apprentice car registration discount

If you're a Victorian trade apprentice using your car for work, you may be eligible for a 50% discount on your next car registration renewal.

The Victorian Government half-price registration scheme is here to support apprentices, allowing you to use the money you're saving on your car rego towards training, living expenses and more tools for the job.

Eligibility

To be eligible for the 50% discount, the vehicle must be registered in your name.

You must also:

- Be enrolled in an approved apprenticeship course and registered as an apprentice with the Victorian Registration and Qualification Authority (VRQA)
- Use your own car, ute or van for approved work purposes (verified by your employer), or to regularly travel to or from work between 8:30pm and 5:30am
- Hold a current Victorian driver's licence*

The discount will not apply if you:

- Are a learner driver
- Have an expired, cancelled or suspended licence
- Are eligible for any other concessions^

Additionally, the discount will only apply to one vehicle per eligible applicant.

Want to know more?

For more information and to see whether you are eligible to take advantage of this saving, contact your local apprenticeship experts at MEGT or visit: www.vicroads.vic.gov.au/registration/registration-fees/concessions-and-discounts/trade-apprentice-registration-discount

*Further eligibility criteria apply. Visit <https://www.vicroads.vic.gov.au/registration/registration-fees/concessions-and-discounts/trade-apprentice-registration-discount> for more information.

^To find out more about concessions or to have your concession removed, call VicRoads on 13 11 71.