

MEGT Australia Ltd recognises our moral and legal obligation to provide a working environment that is safe and without risk to the health and safety of all workers, including staff, apprentices, trainees and any other person who may be affected by our business undertakings.

MEGT is committed to protecting the health and safety of all workers, the environment we operate in and to the delivery of quality service to our customers.

By means of their actions, our board of directors, executive leadership team, managers and all workers, consistently provide a visible and proactive commitment to health, safety and the environment, so as to sustain a culture where these are core values which cannot be compromised.

Our objective is to Think, Work & Live Safe to ensure no harm to:

- Our people and those we interact with;
- Our environment and to the communities in which we operate;

Our commitment is to:

- Implement risk and hazard management systems which are relevant and suitable;
- Establish and monitor clear goals and targets;
- Ensure workers are competent to carry out their work in a safe, environmentally friendly and skilful manner;
- Maintain plant and equipment to minimise risk;
- Effective two-way communication actively pursuing and supporting the involvement and motivation of workers in the development, execution and review of work health and safety initiatives;
- Comply with all relevant work health, safety and environment legislation;
- Actively respond to and investigate all incidents, non-conformances and customer concerns, and ensure corrective and preventative actions are taken to prevent re-occurrence;
- Assist injured workers to remain at work and return to full and productive employment as quickly and safely as possible, following a work related injury;
- Communicate this policy to all workers and making it available to interested parties;
- The provision of resources and the implementation of an appropriate health and safety management system.

MEGT will implement and maintain systems, inclusive of resources, standards, policies, procedures and infrastructure to deliver its commitments. Regular monitoring and review will be carried out at all levels to ensure integrity and effectiveness of our systems to facilitate continuous improvement aimed at elimination of work related injury, environmental impact and the delivery of quality service

MEGT requires all employees, including apprentices, trainees, contractors, other workers and visitors, to comply with safety policies and procedures as documented in the Health and Safety Management System.

David Windridge
Chief Executive Officer

Date: 23 November 2016